

The Waldorf School in central France invites students from all over the world to take part in the 2011

SEJOUR LINGUISTIQUE, a 3 month long French course.

Courses are available either from March 14th to June 10th (spring) or from 12th September to 9th December (Autumn/Fall)

- Are you 16 - 19 years old and would you like to practice and improve your French, experiences new things, have an unforgettable time and get to know interesting people? That's exactly what we can offer you!
- You'll be in a class with 10-15 other students from over the world.
- Your class will have its own team of teachers. Aside from French classes, you will also have art, handiwork and ecological activities based around special events and festivals. These classes will be taught in French.
- You are asked to take with you homework from your school for Maths and science, so that you can keep up with your own class level. At least 2 hours a week are reserved for this homework with the support of a teacher who can speak English, German and Dutch, so that you don't have any problems with understanding.
- The high point of the Séjour is the presentation of a play by the students (in French of course).
- Some cultural excursions are organized including a 3-day trip to Paris.
- You will live with a carefully chosen family and participate in their daily life. This will allow you to put into practice your newly gained language skills! All the host families are closely connected to the school.
- The total fee of 3300 EURO includes tuition, boarding costs and * some trips (including Paris).

 If you would like you can contribute to the solidarity commission of the French language courses. This will help to support other students who find the cost to be too high.*
